CHAPTER AT A GLANCE

Sr. No.	Topic	Important Highlight
1	Company	A company is an association of both natural and artificial persons incorporated under the existing law of a country. A company has a separate legal entity from the persons constituting it.
2	Characteristics of a company	The main characteristics of a company are corporate personality, limited liability, perpetual succession, separate property, transferability of shares, common seal, capacity to sue and be sued, contractual rights, limitation of action, separate management, termination of existence etc.
3	Compared to other types of business associations	As compared to other types of business associations, an incorporated company has the advantage of corporate personality, limited liability, perpetual succession, transferable shares, separate property, capacity to sue, flexibility and autonomy.
4	Disadvantages and incon- veniences in incorporation	There are, however, certain disadvantages and inconveniences in incorporation. Some of these disadvantages are formalities and expenses, corporate disclosures, separation of control from ownership, greater social responsibility, greater tax burden in certain cases, cumbersome winding-up procedure.

5 Doctrine of lifting of or piercing the corporate veil

- (1) Sometime veil of corporate personality is used for some dishonest and fraudulent purpose in that case NCLT will look into reality and remove the corporate veil.
 - In the following case the Tribunal have lifted the corporate veil.
 - Prevention of fraud and misconduct [Gilford Motor Co. Vs. Horne [1933] Ch 935]
 - The company is in reality an agency or trust for someone else [Re. F G Films Ltd. (1953) 1 All E.R. 615]
 - Protection of public policy [Connors Vs. Connors Ltd. (1940) 4 All E.R. 179]
 - Enemy character of company [Daimler Co. Ltd .Vs. Continental Tyre and Rubber Co. (1916) 2 A.C. 307]
 - To protect labour welfare legislation [Workmen of Associated Rubber Industries Ltd. Vs. Associated Rubber Industries Ltd. A.I.R. 1986 SC 1]
 - Use of corporate veil for hiding criminal activities.
 - To punish for contempt of Court [Jyoti Limited Vs. Kanwaljit Kavr Bhasin 32] (1987) DLT 198]
- (2) Where a fraudulent and dishonest use is made of the legal entity, the individuals concerned will not be allowed to take shelter behind the corporate personality.
- (3) The NCLT will break through the corporate shell and apply the principle/doctrine of what is called as "lifting of or piercing the corporate veil".

6	LLP	It is an alternative corporate business form that gives the benefits of limited liability of a company and the flexibility of a partnership. LLP can continue its existence irrespective of changes in partners. It is capable of entering into contracts and holding property in its own name. LLP is a separate legal entity, and is liable to the full extent of its assets but liability of the partners is limited to their agreed contribution in the LLP.
7	Corporation	An organization formed under state law for the purpose of carrying on a business enterprise in such a manner as to make the enterprise distinct from its owners.
8	Illegal association	As per Section 464 of Companies Act, no association or partnership consisting of more than such number of persons as may be prescribed shall be formed for the purpose of carrying on any business that has for its object the acquisition of gain by the association or partnership or by the individual members thereof, unless it is registered as a company under this Act or is formed under any other law for the time being in force. The number of persons which may be prescribed under this section shall not exceed 100. Rule 10 of Companies (Miscellaneous) Rules, 2014 prescribes 50 persons in this regard. Effects of an illegal association: An illegal association: (i) Cannot enter into any contract. (ii) Cannot sue any member, or outsider, not even if the company is subsequently registered.

		 (iii) Cannot be sued by a member, or an outsider for recovery of any debts. (iv) Cannot be wound up by an order of the Tribunal. In fact, the Tribunal cannot entertain a petition for winding up as an unregistered company, for if it did, it would be indirectly according recognition to the illegal association. [Raghubar Dayal Vs. Sarafa Chamber A.I.R. 1954 All. 555] However, an illegal association is liable to be taxed. [Kumara Swamy Chattiar Vs. Income Tax Officer (1957) I.T.R. 457].
9	Company as a Citizen	 The company, though a legal person, is not a citizen under the Citizenship Act, 1955 or under the Constitution of India. In State Trading Corporation of India Ltd. Vs. CTO AIR 1963 SC 1811, the Supreme Court held that the State Trading Corporation though a legal person, was not a citizen and can act only through natural persons.
10	Nationality & Residence	 Though it is established through judicial decisions that a company cannot be a citizen, yet it has nationality, domicile and residence. In Gasque Vs. Inland Revenue Commissioners (1940) 2 K.B. 88, it was held that a limited company is capable of having a domicile and its domicile is the place of its registration and that domicile clings to it throughout its existence.

2014 - June [5] Answer the following citing the relevant provisions of law/case law, if any:

(c) "Separate personality of a company is a special privilege. In case of dishonest or fraudulent use of this privilege, corporate veil can be lifted".Discuss. (4 marks)

Answer:

Doctrine of lifting of or piercing the corporate veil:

Sr. No.	Points	Description
1.	Meaning of lifting or piercing the corporate veil	 The separate personality of a company is a statutory privilege and it must be used for legitimate business purposes only. Where a fraudulent and dishonest use is made of the legal entity, the individuals concerned will not be allowed to take shelter behind the corporate personality. The Tribunal will break through the corporate shell and apply the principle/doctrine of what is called as "lifting of or piercing the corporate veil". The Tribunal will look behind the corporate entity and take action as though no entity separate from the members existed and make the members or the controlling persons liable for debts and obligations of the company.
2.	When it is lifted	Concerned Case Law: [BSN (UK) Ltd. v. Janardan M o h a n d a s Mohandas rajan Pillai [1996] 86 Com Cases 371 (Bom).]	The corporate veil is lifted when in defence proceedings, such as for the evasion of tax, an entity relies on its corporate personality as a shield to cover its wrong doings.

3.	Share- holders not permitted for the lifting of the veil for their purpose	Concerned Case Law: Premlata Bhatia v. Union of Indian (2004) 58 CL 217 (Delhi)	This was held in wherein the premises of a shop were allotted on a licence to the individual licencee. She set up a wholly owned private company and transferred the premises to that company with the Government consent. She could not remove the illegality by saying that she and her company were virtually the same person.

In the following case the Tribunal have lifted the corporate veil.

1	Prevention of fraud and misconduct	Where the medium of a company has been used for committing fraud or improper conduct, the Courts have lifted the veil and looked at the realities of the situation. [Gilford Motor Co. Vs. Horne [1993] Ch 935]
2	Company acting as agent	Where the company is in reality an agency or trust for someone else and the corporate facade is used to cover up that agency or trust. [Re F G Films Ltd. (1953) 1 All E.R. 615]
3	Protection of public policy	Where the doctrine conflicts with public policy, Tribunal have lifted the corporation veil for protecting the public policy. [Connors Vs. Connors Ltd. (1940) 4 All E.R. 179]
4	Enemy Character of Company	Tribunal will lift the corporate veil if the company has enemy character. [Daimler Co. Ltd. Vs. Continental Tyre and Rubber Co. (1916) 2 A.C. 307]

5	Evasion of taxes	Where the veil has been used for evasion of taxes and duties, the Tribunal upheld the piercing of the veil to look at the real transaction. [Re. Dinshaw Maneckjee Petit A.I.R. 1927 Bombay 371]
6	To protect labour welfare legislation	Where the purpose of company formation was to avoid the welfare legislation, the Tribunal will lift the corporate veil. Where it was found that the sole purpose for the formation of new company was to use it as a device to reduce the amount to be paid by way of bonus to workman the Supreme Court upheld the piercing of the veil to look at the transaction. [Workmen of Associated Rubber Industries Ltd. Vs. Associated Rubber Industries Ltd. A.I.R. 1986 SC1]
7	Use of corporate veil for hiding criminal activities	Where the defendant used the corporate structure as a device to conceal his criminal activities (evasion of customs and excise duties), the Tribunal could lift the corporate veil and treat the assets of the company as the realizable property of the shareholder.

1.	Perpetual Succession	 Perpetual Succession, therefore, means that the membership of a company may keep changing from time to time, but that does not affect its continuity. A company, being a separate legal person is unaffected by death or departure of any member and remains the same entity, despite total change in the membership.
2.	Death only on winding of the company	 An incorporated company never dies except when it is wound up as per law.
3.	Change in membership	 The membership of an incorporated company may change either because one shareholder has transferred his shares to another or his shares devolve on his legal representatives on his death or he ceases to be a member under some other provisions of the Companies Act. Thus, perpetual succession denotes the ability of a company to maintain its existence by the constant succession of new individuals who step into the shoes of those who cease to be members of the company.
4.	Survival of company even after death of all the members during war	 A company's life is determined by the terms of its Memorandum of Association. It may be perpetual or it may continue for a specified time to carry on a task or object as laid down in the Memorandum of Association.

Professor L.C.B. Gower rightly mentions, "Members may come and go, but the company can go on forever. During the war all the members of one private company, while in general meeting, were killed by a bomb, but the company survived - not even a hydrogen bomb could have destroyed it".

2015 - Dec [2A] (Or) (i) Explain clearly the meaning of 'lifting of corporate veil' in relation to a company incorporated under the Companies Act, 2013. Examining the judicial decisions, state whether 'corporate veil' can be lifted in the following cases:

- (a) Where the corporate veil has been used for improper conduct; and
- (b) Where the acts of a company are opposed to workmen? (4 marks) Answer:

S. No.	Heading	Description
1.	Lifting of Corporate Veil under Judicial Interpretation	Ever since the decision in Salomon vs. Salomon & Co. Ltd. , (1897) A.C. 22, normally Tribunal are reluctant or at least very cautious to lift the veil of corporate personality to see the real persons behind it. Nevertheless, Tribunal have found it necessary to disregard the separate personality of a company in the following situations:

(a) Where the corporate veil has been used for commission of fraud or improper conduct

Case Laws: In Jones vs. Lipman, (1962) I.W.-L.R. 832

- In this case the court lifted the veil and looked at the realities in the situation.
- A agreed to sell certain land to B. Pending completion of formalities of the said deal, A sold and transferred the land to a company which he had incorporated with a nominal capital of £100 and of which he and a clerk were the only shareholders and directors. This was done in order to escape a decree for specific performance in a suit brought by B. The Tribunal held that the company was the creature of A and a mask to avoid recognition and that in the eyes of equity A must complete the contract, since he had the full control of the limited company in which the property was vested, and was in a position to cause the contract in question to be fulfilled.

(b) Where the acts of a company are opposed to workmen

The Associated Rubber Industries Ltd.
Bhavnagar & another, AIR 1986 SC 1

- It has been decided in The Associated Rubber Industries Ltd. Bhavnagar & another, AIR 1986 SC 1 that where the acts of the company are opposed to workmen the corporate veil may be lifted.
- > Brief facts of the case: In this case, a new company was created wholly by the principal company with no assets of its own except those transferred to it by the principal company and with no, business or income of its own except receiving dividends from share transferred to it by the principal company i.e. only for the purpose of splitting the profits into two hands and thereby reducing the obligation to pay bonus.

The Supreme Court held that the new company was formed as a device to reduce the gross profits of the principal company and thereby reduce the amount to be paid by way of bonus to workmen.

	was lifted in this case.

2017 - Dec [1] Comment on the following:

(d) Three companies incorporated with the same set of shareholders are treated as same companies under the Companies Act, 2013.

(5 marks)

1.	Separate Legal Entity	(i) Separate Corporate Personality	On incorporation, a company becomes a separate legal person in the eyes of law. The company is vested with a corporate personality distinct from individuals who are its members.
		(ii) Own Name and acts	Being a separate legal entity, it bears its own name and acts under a distinct corporate name.
		(iii) Owned assets	Its assets are separate and distinct from those of its members.
		(iv) Different person from promoters	It is also different 'person' from the members who compose it.

		(v) Owned properties, borrowing money etc	As such, it is capable of owning property, incurring debts, borrowing money, having a bank account, employing people, entering into contracts and suing or being sued in the same manner as an individual.
2.	Conclusion	Thus, the two companies which are incorporated with the same set of shareholders are nevertheless distinct and separate entities [Patinson v. Bindya Debi AIR 1933 Pat 196]. [Theory of Corporate veil; Saloman v. Saloman & Co. Ltd.]

PRACTICAL QUESTIONS

2010 - June [5] (b) Rani is a wealthy lady enjoying large dividend and interest income. She has formed three private companies and agreed with each of them to hold a block of investment as an agent for it. Income received was credited in the accounts of the company but the company handed back the amount to her as a pretended loan. This way, she divided her income in three parts in a bid to reduce her tax liability. Discuss the legality of the purpose for which the three companies were formed.

	Law	Bombay 371 . If a company is used as a means to evade tax, the Tribunal may disregard the corporate veil.

		Analysis of the case law
		 (A) The Supreme Court held that the Tribunal is entitled to lift the mask of corporate entity, if it is used for tax evasion or to circumvent tax obligations. (B) In such cases individual shareholders may be held liable to pay income tax. (C) In the given case, the facts are similar to the above mentioned case. The reason to which the companies were formed by the assessee was purely and simply as a means of avoiding tax liability and the companies were nothing more than the assessee herself. (D) Therefore, the Tribunal disregarded the corporate veil and found that the companies were formed by the assessee for the purpose of avoiding tax.
2.	Conclusion	Hence, in view of the above case law Rani can be held liable.

Q2. Distinguish between Hindu Undivided Family and company.

Hindu Undivided Family Business	Company
1	A company consists of heterogeneous (varied or diverse) members.

[Chapter ➡ 1] Introduction ■ 2.41

In a Hindu Undivided Family business the Karta (manager) has the sole authority to contract debts for the purpose of the business, other coparceners cannot do so.	There is no such system in a company.
A person becomes a member of a Hindu Undivided Family business by virtue of birth.	There is no provision to that effect in the company.
No registration is compulsory for carrying on business for gain by a Hindu Undivided Family even if the number of members exceeds twenty [Shyamlal Roy v. Madhusudan Roy, AIR 1959 Cal. 380 (385)].	compulsory.

DESCRIPTIVE QUESTION

Q3. Describe the procedure for incorporation of public company.

Answer:

Requirement of minimum number of directors and shareholders:

There is a minimum requirement of directors and shareholders, as mentioned below:

Public Limited Company

Minimum Shareholders: 7 (Seven)

Minimum Directors: 3 (Three)

Steps for incorporation:

Approving Authority: Registrar of Companies (RoC) and Reserve Bank of

India (RBI)

Obtaining approval from FIPB (Foreign Invoctment Prome

tion Board), if required:

2.42

If the activities of the Indian wholly owned subsidiary fall under Government approval route, then the approval from FIPB has to be obtained.

2 Obtaining
DSC(Digital
Signature Certificate) of proposed directors:

Digital Signature Certificates (DSC) are the digital equivalent (that is electronic format) of physical or paper certificates. DSC is required to sign any electronic document like e-forms. DSC can be obtained from any licensed Certifying Authority.

3 DIN (Director Identification Number) of proposed directors:

It is mandatory for proposed directors to obtain DIN (Director Identification Number) upto 3 under the Companies Act, 2013 through SPICE form . In case of existing companies DIN can be applied electronically in Form DIR- 3 on the website of Ministry of Corporate Affairs (MCA), along with required documents and filing fee.

4 Applying for availability of name:

The fore most step in formation of a company is to apply for availability of name of the proposed company. One must comply with the naming guidelines in this regard. Form INC-1 has to be filed with MCA for reservation of name of the proposed company.

5 Drafting of Memorandum of Association
(MoA) and Articles of Association
(AoA):

Memorandum of Association (MoA) is the charter of the company and it sets out its scope of activities. Articles of Association (AoA), on the other hand, regulate the internal working of the company. Both these documents are very crucial to the company and hence, are drafted with utmost caution.

6	Filing incorporation documents:	Once the name is approved from the Registrar of Companies, documents for incorporation have to be filed in Form -32
7	Filing of documents for registered office of the company (within 30 days of incorporation):	The company must have a place of business as its registered office. Form INC-22 has to be filed along with the required documents, within 30 days of date of incorporation of the company.
8	Certificate of Commencement of Business:	A company, after its incorporation, could commence its business only when the subscribed amount has been deposited by the subscribers in the bank account of the company. A declaration from director that all the subscribers of the company had paid the value of shares to be taken by them and the paid-up share capital of the company is not less than five lakh rupees in Form INC-21 was required to be filed within 180 days of its incorporation. In a recent amendment, government has done away with the above -mentioned requirement of obtaining Certificate of Commencement of Business (effective from end of May, 2015 i.e. 29-05-2015).
