CHAPTER AT A GLANCE

Topic	Important Highlight
1. Company	A company is an association of both natural and artificial persons incorporated under the existing law of a country. A company has a separate legal entity from the persons constituting it.
2. Characteristics of a company	The main characteristics of a company are corporate personality, limited liability, perpetual succession, separate property, transferability of shares, common seal, capacity to sue and be sued, contractual rights, limitation of action, separate management, termination of existence etc.
3. Compared to other types of business associations	As compared to other types of business associations, an incorporated company has the advantage of corporate personality, limited liability, perpetual succession, transferable shares, separate property, capacity to sue, flexibility and autonomy.
4. Disadvantages and inconveniences in incorporation	There are, however, certain disadvantages and inconveniences in incorporation. Some of these disadvantages are formalities and expenses, corporate disclosures, separation of control from ownership, greater social responsibility, greater tax burden in certain cases, cumbersome winding-up procedure.
5. Doctrine of lifting of or piercing the corporate veil	(1) Sometime veil of corporate personality is used for some dishonest and fraudulent purpose in that case NCLT will look into reality and remove the corporate veil.

	In the following case the Tribunal have lifted the corporate veil. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Prevention of fraud and misconduct [Gilford Motor Co. Vs. Horne [1933] Ch 935] • The company is in reality an agency or trust for someone else [Re. F G Films Ltd. (1953) 1 All E.R. 615] • Protection of public policy [Connors Vs. Connors Ltd. 6. LLP	It is an alternative corporate business form that gives the benefits of limited liability of a company and the flexibility of a partnership. LLP can continue its existence irrespective of changes in partners. It is capable of entering into contracts and holding property in its own name. LLP is a separate legal entity, and is liable to the full extent of its assets but liability of the partners is limited to their agreed contribution in the LLP.

7. Corporation	An organization formed under state law for the purpose of carrying on a business enterprise in such a manner as to make the enterprise distinct from its owners.
8. Illegal association	As per Section 464 of Companies Act, no association or partnership consisting of more than such number of persons as may be prescribed shall be formed for the purpose of carrying on any business that has for its object the acquisition of gain by the association or partnership or by the individual members thereof, unless it is registered as a company under this Act or is formed under any other law for the time being in force. The number of persons which may be prescribed under this section shall not exceed 100. Rule 10 of Companies (Miscellaneous) Rules, 2014 prescribes 50 persons in this regard. Effects of an illegal association: An illegal association: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (i) Cannot enter into any contract. 9. Company as a Citizen	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The company, though a legal person, is not a citizen under the Citizenship Act, 1955 or under the Constitution of India. • In State Trading Corporation of India Ltd. Vs. CTO AIR 1963 SC 1811, the Supreme Tribunal held that the State Trading Corporation though a legal person, was not a citizen and can act only through natural persons.
10. Nationality & Residence	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Though it is established through judicial decisions that a company cannot be a citizen, yet it has nationality, domicile and residence. • In Gasque Vs. Inland Revenue Commissioners (1940) 2 K.B. 88, it was held that a limited company is capable of having a domicile and its domicile is the place of its registration and that domicile clings to it throughout its existence.

SHORT NOTES

2007 - Dec [8] (a) Write short note on the following:

(iv) Illegal association.

(4 marks) [CSIG - II]

Answer:

Illegal Association:

1.	Provisions of Section 464 of Companies Act, 2013	Mandatory requirement of registration	No association or partnership consisting of more than such number of persons as may be prescribed shall be formed for the purpose of carrying on any business that has for its object the acquisition of gain by the association or partnership or by the individual members thereof, unless it is registered as a company under this Act or is formed under any other law for the time being in force. The number of persons which may be prescribed under this section shall not exceed 100.
		Exceptions	This section does not apply to: (a) Hindu Undivided Family or (b) An association or partnership formed by professionals who are governed by special Acts like LLP.
2.	Rule 10 of Companies (Misc) Rules, 2014 as Notified on 1st April 2014	Maximum number of members	Any unregistered association shall be treated as illegal association provided such association has more than 50 members.

3.	Companies Act, 2013	Maximum number of Partners	Maximum number of partners of a partnership firm registered under Partnership firm other than LLP. should not exceed 50.
		Limit for banking and other business	As per Companies Act, 2013, no separate limit is specified for banking and other business, earlier it was 10 in case of banking business and 20 in case of other business.
4.	Hindu Undivided Family Firms	Limit for members in Hindu Undivided Family	If two or more joint Hindu family firms carry on business together and the combined number of major members exceeds 50, then their association will become illegal.
		Minor members of Joint families	In computing the number for illegal association, minor members of joint families are to be ignored.
		Minor members on attaining majority	If by reason of minor members of such joint families on attaining majority, the number of persons exceeds the statutory limit, it will become an illegal association.
5.	Effects of an Illegal Association	Consequences	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Cannot enter into any contract. 2. Cannot sue any member, or outsider, not even if the company is subsequently registered. 3. Cannot be sued by a member, or an outsider for recovery of any debts.

3.	LLP as body corporate and Vice-Versa	A LLP may be a body corporate.	But the vice-versa may not be true.
4.	Compliance Requirements	LLP will have lesser compliance requirements.	A body corporate will have more compliance requirements.

2015 - Dec [2] Distinguish between the following:

(a) 'Company' and 'limited liability partnership'.

(4 marks)

Answer:

S. No.	Heading	Description
1.	Regulation	A basic difference between an LLP and a joint stock company lies in that the internal governance structure of a company is regulated by statute (i.e. Companies Act, 2013) whereas for an LLP it would be by a contractual agreement between partners.
2.	Management	The management-ownership divide inherent in a company is not there in a limited liability partnership.

3.	Compliance requirements	LLP will have lesser compliance requirements as compared to a company.
4.	Benefit of limited liability and Flexibility	(a) Limited Liability	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • LLP is an alternative corporate business form that gives the benefits of limited liability of a company and the flexibility of a partnership. • LLP can continue its existence irrespective of changes in partners. • It is capable of entering into contracts and holding property in its own name. • LLP is a separate legal entity, is liable to the full extent of its assets but liability of the partners is limited to their agreed contribution in the LLP.
		(b) Flexibility	LLP will have more flexibility as compared to a company.
5.	Enforcement of contracts	LLP is a body corporate and a legal entity separate from its partners, having perpetual succession.

■ Solved Scanner CSEP M-I Paper 1 (New Syllabus)*Answer:*Doctrine of lifting of or piercing the corporate veil:

S. No.	Points	Description
1.	Meaning of lifting or piercing the corporate veil	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● The separate personality of a company is a statutory privilege and it must be used for legitimate business purposes only. ● Where a fraudulent and dishonest use is made of the legal entity, the individuals concerned will not be allowed to take shelter behind the corporate personality. ● The Tribunal will break through the corporate shell and apply the principle/doctrine of what is called as “lifting of or piercing the corporate veil”. ● The Tribunal will look behind the corporate entity and take action as though no entity separate from the members existed and make the members or the controlling persons liable for debts and obligations of the company.
2.	When it is lifted	Concerned Case Law: [BSN (UK) Ltd. v. Janardan Mohandas Mohandas rajan Pillai [1996] 86 Com Cases 371 (Bom).]	The corporate veil is lifted when in defence proceedings, such as for the evasion of tax, an entity relies on its corporate personality as a shield to cover its wrong doings.

3.	Shareholders not permitted for the lifting of the veil for their purpose	Concerned Case Law: Premlata Bhatia v. Union of Indian (2004) 58 CL 217 (Delhi)	This was held in wherein the premises of a shop were allotted on a licence to the individual licensee. She set up a wholly owned private company and transferred the premises to that company with the Government consent. She could not remove the illegality by saying that she and her company were virtually the same person.

In the following case the Tribunal have after the corporate veil.

1.	Prevention of fraud and misconduct	Where the medium of a company has been used for committing fraud or improper conduct, the Courts have lifted the veil and looked at the realities of the situation. [Gilford Motor Co. Vs. Horne [1993] Ch 935]
2.	Company acting as agent	Where the company is in reality an agency or trust for someone else and the corporate facade is used to cover up that agency or trust. [Re F G Films Ltd. (1953) 1 All E.R. 615]
3.	Protection of public policy	Where the doctrine conflicts with public policy, Tribunal have lifted the corporation veil for protecting the public policy. [Connors Vs. Connors Ltd. (1940) 4 All E.R. 179]
4.	Enemy Character of Company	Tribunal will lift the corporate veil if the company has enemy character. [Daimler Co. Ltd. Vs. Continental Tyre and Rubber Co. (1916) 2 A.C. 307]

5.	Evasion of taxes	Where the veil has been used for evasion of taxes and duties, the Tribunal upheld the piercing of the veil to look at the real transaction. [Re. Dinshaw Maneckjee Petit A.I.R. 1927 Bombay 371]
6.	To protect labour welfare legislation	Where the purpose of company formation was to avoid the welfare legislation, the Tribunal will lift the corporate veil. Where it was found that the sole purpose for the formation of new company was to use it as a device to reduce the amount to be paid by way of bonus to workman the Supreme Court upheld the piercing of the veil to look at the transaction. [Workmen of Associated Rubber Industries Ltd. Vs. Associated Rubber Industries Ltd. A.I.R. 1986 SC1]
7.	Use of corporate veil for hiding criminal activities	Where the defendant used the corporate structure as a device to conceal his criminal activities (evasion of customs and excise duties), the Tribunal could lift the corporate veil and treat the assets of the company as the realizable property of the shareholder.

1.	Perpetual Succession	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Perpetual Succession, therefore, means that the membership of a company may keep changing from time to time, but that does not affect its continuity. ➤ A company, being a separate legal person is unaffected by death or departure of any member and remains the same entity, despite total change in the membership.
2.	Death only on winding of the company	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ An incorporated company never dies except when it is wound up as per law.
3.	Change in membership	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ The membership of an incorporated company may change either because one shareholder has transferred his shares to another or his shares devolve on his legal representatives on his death or he ceases to be a member under some other provisions of the Companies Act. ➤ Thus, perpetual succession denotes the ability of a company to maintain its existence by the constant succession of new individuals who step into the shoes of those who cease to be members of the company.
4.	Survival of company even after death of all the members during war	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ A company's life is determined by the terms of its Memorandum of Association. It may be perpetual or it may continue for a specified time to carry on a task or object as laid down in the Memorandum of Association.

Answer:

S. No.	Heading	Description
1.	Authenticity of the statement	A Company being a body corporate, can sue and be sued in its own name.
2.	Legal Framework	<ul style="list-style-type: none">➤ To sue, means to institute legal proceedings against (a person) or to bring a suit in a Tribunal of law.➤ All legal proceedings against the company are to be instituted in its name.➤ Similarly, the company may bring an action against anyone in its own name.

3.	Company's right to sue for damages	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ A company's right to sue arises when some loss is caused to the company, i.e. to the property or the personality of the company. Hence, the company is entitled to sue for damages in libel or slander as the case may be [Floating Services Ltd. vs. MV San Fransceco Dipaloo (2004) 52 SCL 762 (Guj)]. ➤ A company, as a person distinct from its members, may even sue one of its own members.
4.	Conclusion	Hence, a company is entitled to sue a natural person or to sue another company incorporated under the Companies Act, 2013 in its own name.

2015 - Dec [2A] (Or) (i) Explain clearly the meaning of 'lifting of corporate veil' in relation to a company incorporated under the Companies Act, 2013. Examining the judicial decisions, state whether 'corporate veil' can be lifted in the following cases:

- (a) Where the corporate veil has been used for improper conduct; and
 (b) Where the acts of a company are opposed to workmen? (4 marks)

Answer:

S. No.	Heading	Description
1.	Lifting of Corporate Veil under Judicial Interpretation	Ever since the decision in Salomon vs. Salomon & Co. Ltd., (1897) A.C. 22 , normally Tribunal are reluctant or at least very cautious to lift the veil of corporate personality to see the real persons behind it. Nevertheless, Tribunal have found it necessary to disregard the separate personality of a company in the following situations

	(a) Where the corporate veil has been used for commission of fraud or improper conduct	Case Laws: In Jones vs. Lipman, (1962) I.W.- L.R. 832	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ In this case the court lifted the veil and looked at the realities the situation. ➤ A agreed to sell certain land to B. Pending completion of formalities of the said deal, A sold and transferred the land to a company which he had incorporated with a nominal capital of £100 and of which he and a clerk were the only shareholders and directors. This was done in order to escape a decree for specific performance in a suit brought by B. The Tribunal held that the company was the creature of A and a mask to avoid recognition and that in the eyes of equity A must complete the contract, since he had the full control of the limited company in which the property was vested, and was in a position to cause the contract in question to be fulfilled.

(b) Where the acts of a company are opposed to workmen

The Associated Rubber Industries Ltd. Bhavnagar & another, AIR 1986 SC 1

- It has been decided in The Associated Rubber Industries Ltd. Bhavnagar & another, AIR 1986 SC 1 that where the acts of the company are opposed to workmen the corporate veil may be lifted.
- Brief facts of the case: In this case, a new company was created wholly by the principal company with no assets of its own except those transferred to it by the principal company with no, business or income of its own except receiving dividends from share transferred to it by the principal company i.e. only for the purpose of splitting the profits into two hands and thereby reducing the obligation to pay bonus. The Supreme Court held that the new company was formed as a device to reduce the gross profits of the principal company and thereby reduce the amount to be paid by way of bonus to workmen. The amount of dividends received by the

PRACTICAL QUESTIONS

2010 - June [5] (b) Rani is a wealthy lady enjoying large dividend and interest income. She has formed three private companies and agreed with each of them to hold a block of investment as an agent for it. Income received was credited in the accounts of the company but the company handed back the amount to her as a pretended loan. This way, she divided her income in three parts in a bid to reduce her tax liability. Discuss the legality of the purpose for which the three companies were formed.

(5 marks) [CSEM - II]

Answer:

1.	Leading Case Law	Sir Dinshaw Maneckjee Petit, A.I.R 1927 Bombay 371. If a company is used as a means to evade tax, the Tribunal may disregard the corporate veil.
		Analysis of the case law
		(A) The Supreme Court held that the Tribunal is entitled to lift the mask of corporate entity, if it is used for tax evasion or to circumvent tax obligations. (B) In such cases individual shareholders may be held liable to pay income tax.

		(C) In the given case, the facts are similar to the above mentioned case. The reason to which the companies were formed by the assessee was purely and simply as a means of avoiding tax liability and the companies were nothing more than the assessee herself. (D) Therefore, the Tribunal disregarded the corporate veil and found that the companies were formed by the assessee for the purpose of avoiding tax.
2.	Conclusion	Hence, in view of the above case law Rani can be held liable.
